Where do we accompany adults?

Of course, there are the usual places RCIA, bible studies, and other adult studies using all kinds of different faith resources. We might even have thought that we accompany adults when we facilitate marriage and baptism formation sessions or children's sacramental formation sessions when parents are present. All of these are places where Adult Faith is occurring, and there are many more.

Other places where Adult Faith occurs and we have opportunities to be companions on the journey include: over coffee with a friend, in the grocery store aisle, at the sporting venue, at the parish pancake breakfast, with our children, our children-in-law, etc.

In the usual and unusual places, the six tools we will discuss will help us live our baptismal call to share the Good News. Not like those who stand on the corner or ring our doorbells but in ways that encourage those we encounter to take their next step towards Christ.

If this topic is of interest to you, be sure to join us for this one-hour session on:

THURSDAY OCTOBER 21 FROM 7:00 - 8:00 pm

Learning the Art of Accompaniment: Adult Faith Formation. This session will offer six tools to help create an adult faith environment that encourages adults to take the next step on their faith journey. The goal is to help the adults we accompany bridge the faith-life gap so prevalent in our society. This session would interest those facilitating RCIA (for older children, youth, or adults), bible studies, and other adult faith formation gatherings.

Click on the button below to register, and then on October 21, bring a coffee, a friend, and your experience as we share together on this topic.

Blessings on your weekend.
