Vocation Corner ~ Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - C

A Vocation View: Can you imagine Jesus, facing His fate in the Garden of Gethsemane, deciding, "No, I'll not go through with this?" No, vocation means perseverance.

Prayer: That men and women called to proclaim the kingdom of God by their lives of service as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, will have the determination to overcome every obstacle to their response through prayer and the practice of virtue, we pray to the Lord.

Action: It can take time to find one's calling and be confirmed in it. Saint Paul of the Cross wanted to redirect his life to bring others the message of God's love expressed in Christ's Passion, but he had to wait more than two decades before the church officially gave him permission to found the religious order now known as the Passionists.

Official Prayer for the World Meeting of Families

June 22-26, 2022

Heavenly Father, we come before You to praise You and to thank You for the great gift of the family.
 We pray to You for all families consecrated by the Sacrament of Matrimony. May they rediscover each day the grace they have received, and as small domestic Churches, may they know how to witness to your Presence and to the love with which Christ loves the Church.
 We pray to You for all families faced with difficulty and suffering caused by illness or circumstances of which only You know. Sustain them and make them aware of the path to holiness upon which You call them, so that they might experience your infinite Mercy and find new ways to grow in love. We pray to You for the children and young people: may they encounter You and respond joyfully to the vocation You have in mind for them.
 We pray for parents and grandparents: may they be aware that they are signs of the fatherhood and motherhood of God in caring for the children who, in body and spirit, You entrust to them; for the experience of fraternity that the family can give to the world.
 Lord, grant that each family might live their specific vocation to holiness in the Church as a call to become missionary disciples, in the service of life and peace, In communion with our priests, religious, and all vocations in the Church.
 Bless the World Meeting of Families. Amen.

June 26, 2022 — Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings take us back to the basics, inviting us to reflect honestly on our deepest priorities in life.

In today's Gospel, from Luke, Christ refers to the struggle to put Him above all else as He encounters two “would be” disciples on His way to Jerusalem. “Follow me,” Jesus says to the first man. “But he replied, ‘Lord let me go first and bury my father.’ The other said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home.” These two want to follow Christ but only on their own terms, only after taking care of some other, more pressing matters (at least in their own minds).

To this, Christ says thanks but no thanks! Following Him requires an unqualified “yes” not a “yes but...” We are called to put Christ and His kingdom ahead of our own plans if we truly wish to be his disciples and to find victory in the battle of selfishness.

Living stewardship as a way of life can go a long way in arming us for victory. Stewardship living provides us with a custom-made “training plan” — the commitment to a specific offering of our time, talent, and treasure to the Kingdom of God. It is a plan discerned through prayer and by looking at the realities of our unique circumstances, strengths, and limitations. The daily discipline of committing to the plan strengthens us and helps us gradually move away from the “yes, but” attitude and towards an unqualified “yes!” to Christ and His will.

Do not be afraid to give the best of yourself and your gifts to Christ. He deserves nothing less, and this way of life, while challenging, will be characterized by a joy and peace that only comes from living for Him.

“Prayer is the fastest thing on Earth... it reaches God before you even say it.”
