Vocation Corner

~Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – C

A Vocation View: Another sign of Vocation is that your heart is more intent on things of heaven rather than on things of earth. God is not just everything: he is the only thing.

Prayer: For a deepening conviction that each of us makes His merciful love manifest through every vocation faithfully lived in Christ, to the glory of God and the salvation of His people, we pray to the Lord.

Action: IN A WORLD where human frailty is acutely felt, they (religious men and women) remind us of God and bring Christ's redemptive love to all they meet. Archbishop Robert J. Carlson of St. Louis

~Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – C

A Vocation View: Where is your treasure? There is your heart! Have you considered that God's will is your treasure for you? Come, follow Him!

Prayer: That those who have been given so much in their vocations as priests, deacons and consecrated men and women will imitate the Lord's generosity as they live that gift, we pray to the Lord.

Action: You owe it to all of us to get on with what you're good at. W.H. Auden

Thank you and welcome!

We are grateful for the time that Father Nick was with us, and we thank all the priests who replaced in our parish over the last two months. Now it is time for us to welcome our new Pastor, Father Millan Sajonas. We hope you will feel at home here, and we welcome you wholeheartedly to Notre Dame Parish

August 7, 2022 — Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Whether you are just beginning your stewardship journey or have been living a stewardship way of life for years, today's readings invite us to ask ourselves an important question to ponder.

The question is this: “What do you treasure?” Of course, we all know the “right” answer: we treasure our faith, our family, and our friendships, but Jesus tells us in the Gospel passage from Luke how we can discover the real answer to this question. He says, “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.”

To discern what we really treasure, we need to do a check on our hearts. We can each ask ourselves, “Where do I spend the majority of my energy? Where do I find my thoughts dwelling? How do I choose to spend my time when I find myself with a few spare moments? What do my spending habits reveal about me, what is important to me?”

As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in grateful response to all that God has given us. Do I recognize and treasure these gifts?

July 31, 2022 — Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish, but let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about “stuff” as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff.

Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead, but Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth, and he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward, and you will be rich in what matters most.

*“Prayer is the fastest thing on Earth... it reaches God before you even say it.”
