MAiD for You?

A Conversation on Canada's MAiD Expansion to Mental Health and What's at Stake Canada's MAiD law is changing, and many are not aware of how far it has expanded.

Beginning in March 2027, eligibility will include individuals whose sole underlying condition is mental illness.

This spring, a province wide tour will feature Larry Worthen, Executive Director of the Christian Medical and Dental Association of Canada, and one of Canada's leading voices on healthcare ethics, conscience rights, and Medical Assistance in Dying.

You'll have the opportunity to: • Learn how MAiD is evolving in Canada, with real stories from healthcare settings • Explore the ethical, medical, and social questions being raised • Consider how we support those who are suffering and seeking hope.

Join the conversation across Saskatchewan:
May 11 — Saskatoon; May 12 — Prince Albert; May 13 — Yorkton; May 14 — Weyburn; May 15 — Moose Jaw; May 16 — Regina. Free to attend. All are welcome. RSVP and learn more at hopedoesnotexpire.ca

Vocation Corner

Sixth Sunday of Easter – A

A Vocation View: That Jesus rose from the dead is our Faith. That we can be reborn in the Spirit is our Hope. That we can do God's work is our Love. Follow God's Call.

Prayer: For a growing conviction among our young people that they are loved by our Heavenly Father and that Jesus will manifest Himself to them through their vocations, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Although there has been a noticeable decline in Mass attendance and an increase in secularism, there is a significant number of young Catholics who are deeply committed to their faith while working in the secular world.

Responsible Ministry Protocol Refresher

June 13, at 10:00 am in St. Bernadette Hall.

All volunteers who bring communion to the sick or shut-ins, and volunteers serving the parish with children, youth or elderly must take this session once a year.

THANK YOU

On behalf of MOSAIC, I extend a very sincere thank you to all of you who attended our concert in support of The Battlefords District Food and Resource Centre and Catholic Family Services. We had a full house with approximately 215 people in attendance and raised a total of $2,702.60 at the door. In addition, we also received a charitable donation by Joanne and Robert Turpin, who graciously paid for the rental of the Legion Hall for this event, making a total of $3,002.60 raised for this event. Your generosity is very much treasured and appreciated! Thanks again!

Sixth Sunday of Easter

On this sixth Sunday of Easter, our readings remind us that God must come first in our lives, and that love of God is shown through concrete actions — this is precisely why the stewardship way of life is so necessary.

Our second reading, from St. Peter, challenges us to “Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts.” In other words, we are to put Christ above all else. His role is not only as Savior — as essential as that is — but as Lord of our lives. As His disciples, we are called to place Him at the center of everything — our time, our talent, and our treasure.

The beauty of the stewardship way of life is that it gives us a concrete way to live this out. It allows us to demonstrate that Christ truly is Lord of our lives, because love is not merely a feeling. “Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me,” Jesus tells us in our Gospel from John.

True love is an act of the will. It requires obedience, humility, and deep trust in God. But the reward is extraordinary. Christ tells us, “Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.”

Could there be anything more fulfilling than living in such a way that the God of the universe reveals Himself more fully to us?
